Instructions for Completing the Complaint Form

HEADING. Fill in the name of the plaintiff or plaintiffs (the taxpayer). In most cases, the defendant is the county assessor where the property is located. Print the name of the county. If this is an industrial property appeal, the Department of Revenue, the county assessor, or both, may be named as defendant(s), depending on who conducted the appraisal.

ORS 305.403(3). In some cases, the Department of Revenue may be the only defendant. ORS 305.275.

SECTION 1. Insert the year or years you are appealing and the property account number or numbers (from your tax statement). Circle the appropriate type of property.

SECTION 2. Describe what action you are appealing.

* You Must Attach a copy of the order, letter, notice, or other document being appealed. *

SECTION 3. Explain why you think the assessor or Department of Revenue is wrong. (If more space is needed, attach additional pages.)

SECTION 4. State what you want the court to do. If you want the court to reduce the real market value of your property, you must state the requested real market value as of the assessment date(s).

MEDIATION: In all cases, either party may request mediation. Mediation is court-facilitated negotiation. The purpose is to help the parties obtain a clearer understanding of the merits of each position and help them reach a mutually acceptable agreement. A party may request mediation at any time.
